5. Is the processing of information likely to cause individuals to object or complain?

Ascent is not aware of any justifiable reasons that would constitute a legitimate reason for objecting or complaining about the way we process or control information.

6. How long will we retain information for?

Ascent will typically retain information for a period of seven years. This is due to regulatory reasons and to ensure our business records are adequate to maintain the requisite levels of insurance to protect both our clients and customers.

In some cases where Ascent is not the data controller, your information may be kept for a longer period due to our instructing client requirements. In such cases our clients will hold specific details of the retention periods should you require further clarification about this.

7. Do I have the right to withdraw consent to hold my information?

Due to the nature of work undertaken by Ascent and the contractual position between our customers and clients there will not usually be a right to withdraw consent for Ascent to hold your information. This is because there is a legitimate reason for Ascent to control or process your information as described above, which is not based upon consent.

8. Overseas transfers

None of the information that we collect process or store as a result of this website is transferred outside of the European Economic Area (EEA). This includes information that is exchanged with any third-party organisation as described above.

9. Data privacy and security

Ascent maintain a comprehensive data management work programme, which includes processes for ensuring that data protection is a key consideration of all new and existing IT systems that hold personal data. Where any concerns, risks or issues are identified, we conduct relevant impact assessments in order to determine any actions that are necessary to ensure optimum privacy.

We also maintain an active information security work programme which seeks to protect the availability, confidentiality and integrity of all physical and information assets. Specifically, this helps us to:

- protect against potential breaches of confidentiality;
- ensure all IT facilities are protected against damage, loss or misuse;
- increase awareness and understanding of the requirements of information security, and the responsibility of our colleagues to protect the confidentiality and integrity of the information that they handle; and
- ensure the optimum security of this website.
